

Nabil Jijakli is Secretary General of ONDD (Office national du ducroire - Nationale DelcredereDienst), the Belgian Export Credit Agency and member of the board of the joint venture INGO-ONDD. This Russian-Belgian insurer was established in 2009 and specializes in covering credit risks related to domestic and international transactions on the Russian market. Nabil Jijakli is attending the meeting of the various Board of Directors of the subsidiaries of ONDD and is head of the communication, compliance and international unit at ONDD. Before joining ONDD, he worked for 21 years at the National Bank of Belgium, where in his last position he was the Secretary of the Financial Stability Committee. He has been also responsible for the euro introduction in Belgium and has worked for three years as expert at the European Commission.